Important Questions to ask your insurance company prior to scheduling an appointment:

- ◇ Do my benefits provide coverage for ADD/ADHD testing?
- ◇ NOTE: Private pay for testing can be anywhere from $1,500 - $2,500. Testing is not a one time appointment but includes 3-4 sessions.
- ◇ Do I need pre-approval from the insurance company for this testing?
- ◇ Do I need a referral from a psychiatrist, physician, psychologist or therapist for insurance to pay for this testing?
- ◇ What will the out-of-pocket costs to be for ME?
- ◇ Does the insurance company have a list of psychologists or other providers the insurance company is contracted with and is in network to do testing? Seeing someone out-of-network generally cost the insured additional money.
